Membership application questions:

On a separate page, please answer the following questions with a few sentences each. Feel free to add any additional information about yourself that would be interesting or important for us to know:

1. Tell us about your areas of interest/research and current project(s). For masters and doctoral students, briefly describe your thesis/dissertation project. Specify whether it involves research-creation work, and if so, in what media. Tell us about your interest in and connection to feminist media studies.
2. How can the Feminist Media Studio support your work? What kinds of resources are you interested in making use of?
3. How do you foresee yourself contributing to the community of members that make up the Feminist Media Studio? In what ways are you interested in getting involved? For example, this may include skills that you can share or activities that you would like to initiate.
